Paul Hamilton Hayne (January 1, 1830 - July 6, 1886) was a 19th-century southern American poet, essayist, and editor. Hayne, born at Charleston, South Carolina, of an old family, contributed to various magazines, and published Poems (1885), containing "Legends and Lyrics." His graceful verses show the influence of Keats. His sonnets are some of his best work. Paul Hamilton Hayne has 23 books on Goodreads with 14 ratings. Paul Hamilton Hayne's most popular book is The Poems Of Henry Timrod. A Man of Letters in the Nineteenth-Century South: Selected Letters of Paul Hamilton Hayne by. Paul Hamilton Hayne, Rayburn S. Moore. 0.00 avg rating 0 ratings published 1982.